Comment. This body appears to have been virtually dissolved in the first months of the insurrection but attempts have since been made to re-establish it, particularly in the Pegu and Toungoo Districts.

25X1X6 □ **

Comment. Boh THEIN DAN and Boh AUNG MIN were arrested shortly after the outbreak of the insurrection, only to be released in mid-July, 1948. Since then they appear to have broken with the BCP and have been following their own policy in conjunction with the White Band DPYA. They were among those responsible for persuading part of 3 Burma Rifles to desert in early August, 1948.

25X1X6 ***

Comment. This body, whose sphere of influence was limited to Rangoon, is now no longer in existence. Its leading members are either in custody, as indicated, or have been forced to flee the city.
